

Our Mission Statement: 'Inspired by the Holy Spirit we are a Eucharistic community called by God To share the love of Jesus Christ and create a welcoming parish of renewal and mission.'

Reflection:

Like Peter's mother-in-law, we have all experienced God's presence in one form or another, which led us to commit ourselves to serving him. This experience is symbolized by Baptism. Why do we falter? The problem is our forgetfulness. We need daily reminders of our past spiritual experiences. Jesus withdrew from the crowd for this reason.

Quote:

The seventeenth-century monk Brother Lawrence, before a day's work as a cook in his community, would pray, "O my God . . . grant me your grace to stay in your presence. Help me in my labors. Possess all my affections." As he worked, he kept talking to God, listening for His leading and dedicating his work to Him. Even when he was busiest, he would use intervals of relative calm to ask for His grace. No matter what was happening, he sought for and found a sense of his Maker's love. - Harold Myra

The Assignments

- Pause for 1 minute before commencing your break to acknowledge God's presence in your work. You can begin the practice of the Angelus.
- Sign up for 'The Search' faith study.
- Start a conversation circle around scam alerts to help people from being victimized.
- Invitations to the pro-life supper are in the pews. Prayerfully consider attending this event to support life.

The Angelus

The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

(Hail Mary . . .)

Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to thy word.

(Hail Mary ...)

And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

(Hail Mary ...)

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy grace into our hearts; that, we to whom the incarnation of Christ, thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by his passion and cross, be brought to the glory of his resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
